Why a designer?

"True interior design is often the missing link in bringing your project together. I believe that everyone deserves to live and work in a visually appealing and functional space and that does not always mean a significant budget. A thoughtful and informed design can make all the difference. As a professional designer, it is my job to understand our clients' individual style. I take cues from their surroundings and personal experiences to create a one of a kind design vision for them. It's all about discovery and finding that inspiration point for the project."

*"Build your design around quality foundation pieces.
From there, surround them with stylish accents such as patterned drapery panels, accessories, and distinctive lighting."*

“Our room... walk in our space and you will understand the talent, value and skill that Karen and her team have for bringing spaces to life.”

Fine artisan furniture

There is often a story behind hand crafted furniture: from what inspired the piece, to the design process, to how it was constructed and what materials were selected. Design Studio B guides clients every step of the way to create a fashionable piece of furniture that will become a treasured keepsake for generations to come.

Who We Are.

*At Design Studio B, we create environments of inspiration where living can thrive. From initial concept, through design development, to final installation, our work is distinguished through exceptional attention to detail, the highest standards and meticulous follow-through.

Every Design Studio B concept evolves from close collaboration and a full understanding of each client's personal style. Our talented team listens, researches, synthesizes and ultimately implements a creative vision that is as functional as it is extraordinarily a reflection of the client.

"Little did I know that I needed more than decorating help, I needed design help. Someone who could look at my space, and provide solutions. With Design Studio B's help, I learned that things needed to be planned out, not pieced together."

Project Management

Design Studio B works with clients and contractors to ensure a comprehensive aesthetic and functional plan is implemented. The interior design vision involves the disciplines of proportion, scale, balance, rhythm and harmony. We use our knowledge in these areas to create interior visions that are physically and psychologically comfortable, as well as functional and beautiful.

"We found a house that was perfect but it was missing the key elements that bring your home to life... we needed help and didn't find it easy until we uncovered the team at Design Stuido B."

add vibrant color for impact

By creating and bringing exclusive pieces into the center of a living space the environment becomes beautifully distinct and personal.

Accesorize... it makes a difference
